

YUL-GOHK HYUNG

Pronounced (Yule-Goke)

Yul-Gohk was the psudonym of the great scholar I Yi (1536-1584 A.D.), nicknamed the "Confucius of Korea". The 38 movements of the form refer to his birthplace on the 38th latitude. The diagram (+) represents "scholar".

The pattern made by this form:

of Movements-38

of Kihaps- 2

#21 Right Punch

#36 Left Backfist

The dark green color of the belt represents the intermediate growth of the student.
The Taekwondo student is still continuing to grow.